Barbara Klunder

Afrofest's 2006 T-shirt was designed by a leading local artist. Barbara Klunder is an award winning designer/illustrator known in Toronto for the familiar images of the Toronto Jazz Festival. She also made her mark on Queen Street by creating the imagery that was so memorable at the Bamboo Club, from the menu to the murals. Through that Bamboo association she had designed the very first Afrofest t-shirt for the 1989 festival, one that is probably the most admired of the festival "collection".

Once Music Africa decided to explore an updated design for the 2006 festival, commissioning the creator of that first original colourful creation seemed an obvious option. The final product is this year's beautiful shirt - both new and bold, but also one that harks back to the roots of Afrofest. It's sure to become a collectors item!
